Fleur de Lys

created by John Creighton Petersen

Supplies

From IMAGINE Crafts and Tsukineko

- Opalite Ink in Glacier Blue, Cypress Frost, and Sterling Frost
- Sponge Daubers, Jumbo Daubers

Rubber Stamps "Wall Paper Print" by Penny Black, Inc., "Fleur de Lys" by Stamp Rosa

Other Navy cardstock, navy ribbon, dimensional tape, adhesive, scissors, paper trimmer

Directions

1. Cut card and layers from navy cardstock: card A2 size (4-1/4 x 5-1/2 inch finished size), layer 4 x 5-1/4", layer 2 x 2-3/4".

2. Cover the entire piece of the large layer piece with Opalite Glacier Blue. Apply ink with a Jumbo Dauber in a circular motion for dramatic effects.

3. Color edge of front side of card with Opalite Cypress Frost using a Sponge Dauber.

4. Cut a length of ribbon approximately 1" longer than height of large layering piece. Use a Sponge Dauber to add Opalite Cypress Frost to ribbon. Wrap ends of ribbon around back of layering piece and secure with adhesive.

5. Stamp "Wall Paper Print" over the inked large layer piece with Opalite Sterling Frost. Edge layer piece with Sterling Frost.

6. Color small layer piece completely with Opalite Cypress Frost using a Sponge Dauber. Stamp "Fleur de Lys" in Opalite Sterling Frost over the small inked layer piece. Edge with Sterling Frost.

7. To assemble, adhere large layer piece to card base with adhesive of choice. Mount small layer piece with dimensional tape to the large layer piece over the ribbon.

created by Debi S. Naanes

Supplies

From IMAGINE Crafts and Tsukineko

- All Purpose Ink Duo in Emerald/Ultramarine
- Multi-Purpose Squeegee
- Ink Droppers

Other Cotton or silk fabric, shaving cream

Marbled eye pillow with lace

Directions

1. Cut a piece of fabric measuring your desired size.
2. Spray shaving cream onto a flat surface and spread to an area slight larger than the fabric size. Shaving cream should be at least 1/2" thick.
3. Using an Ink Dropper, drop dots of Emerald All Purpose Ink onto various areas of the shaving cream. Repeat with the Ultramarine All Purpose Ink.
4. Pull the tip of the Ink Dropper through the various dots of ink, first in a vertical motion followed by a horizontal motion. Continue pulling the tip through the ink until you achieve your desired marbled pattern.
5. Gently lay the larger piece of fabric on top of the shaving cream and very lightly press to ensure contact with the ink.
6. Pull the fabric off the shaving cream and use the Multi-Purpose Squeegee to remove the shaving cream.
7. Heat-set the inked fabric by applying a hot dry iron to both sides for 2 minutes each
